Right to take an action

As a Shareholder in the Company, you may have a right of action against the Company under certain circumstances, for example a breach of contract. You should consult your legal and/or professional advisors to understand your rights in such a situation.

There is currently no formal process to pursue a representative or “class” action in Ireland, although this situation may change in the future. Accordingly, any action(s) you may wish to pursue against the Company would need to be taken on an individual rather than a collective basis.

You also have a regulatory right of action to pursue the depositary of the Fund (the “Depositary”) in respect of (i) any loss of an asset held in the custody of the Depositary or any delegate of the Depositary or (ii) of any other losses caused by the Depositary’s negligent or intentional failure to properly fulfil its obligations under applicable regulations provided that this does not lead to a duplication of redress or to unequal treatment of shareholders in the Company.

Shareholders also have other remedies available as outlined in the applicable legislation governing the Fund.

Personal data

Shareholders that are natural persons have rights under the Irish data protection legislation in relation to the information the Fund and the Fund’s service providers may process about you. These rights include the right to request access to the personal data the Fund holds about you. Further details are available from the Fund’s privacy policy at [<https://www.cheynecapital.com/privacy-notice/>].
